(image) Tbilisi Historic District

10:00 guide will meet you at the hotel lobby and invite you to start full day sightseeing of Tbilisi historical district.

The first stop is Sameba, the Holy Trinity Cathedral, one of the splendid and tallest churches in the orthodox world. The grandiose staircase leads from the entrance and bell tower to the cathedral; the gorgeous panoramic view of the city is opening. Go around the yard and the main hall of the cathedral. Excursion will take about 30 minutes.

Tour continues to Metekhi Plateau, the residential area of Georgian Kings. Equestrian Statue of the King Vakhtang Gorgasali - founder of the capital city - overlooks the river Mtkvari and colorful medieval houses with carved wooden balconies hanging above it. From here walk downhill to the Europe Square and Rike Park, picturesque area.

Lower station of the aerial cable way is located in Rike Park. Ride up to the Narikala Fortress built in 4th c, The site overlooks Tbilisi. From the fort Narikala we stroll down to the old districts of Tbilisi and visit several interesting sites: the thermal Sulfur Bathhouse District, Shardeni street, Meidan square and the surrounding area that is full with outdoor cafes, art galleries and souvenir shops.

Take a tram and go up to Mtatsminda Mountain. Park is overlooking the whole city, take a walk in the park and enjoy panoramic views of the city.

In the evening arrive to the hotel.

Overnight in Tbilisi.

DAY 3: TBILISI - DAVID GAREJA - BODBE-SIGNAGHI

Total driving: 205 km (3h 17 min)

Days 3 and 4 are devoted to explore Kakheti - the major wine-growing region and the former kingdom of Eastern Georgia.

After breakfast in Tbilisi hotel, check out and drive to David Gareja semi-desert hills to explore David Gareja lavra cave monastery. Established in the 6th century, complex developed on a huge territory among 13 monasteries in the early middle ages; hundreds of cave cells, living areas, churches and chapels now became part of Azerbaijan territory.

From Gareja desert continue the way to Bodbe and Signagi.

Stop at the Bodbe nunnery and see beautiful wall paintings and wooden iconostas of 19th c. Monastery is closely associated with St. Nino - the Enlightener of Georgia; her relics are buried there. Basilica originally was built in 9th c. and was renovated in 17th c., 19th c and 21st c., Monastery nowadays is a popular pilgrimage site.

After 2 kilometers drive, arrive in Signaghi - a small charming town on the eastern foothills of Gombori mountain range, overlooking the valley of Alazani and surrounded by the defensive medieval curtain walls.

Overnight in Signagi.

DAY 4: SIGHNAGI - KVARELI - GREMI - TSINANDALI - TELAVI

Total driving: 1 hr 55 min (110 km)

After breakfast drive to Kvareli and visit Khareba wine cellar located in a tunnel dug out of the flank of Caucasus Mountains and taste amazing Qvevri wines. The temperature in the Tunnel stays ideally at 12-14 degrees throughout the year. It consists of two main tunnels, which are linked by 13 galleries. The total length of the tunnels is 7.7 km. One of the two entrances to the cave (about 300 meters) is used for tourism, while the other entrances are used for the care and aging of wines stored in metal and oak containers. Here you'll taste Khareba wines and learn how to bake traditional Georgian Khachapuri (Cheese Pie) and traditional sweets - Churchkhela.

After Kvareli head to Gremi - the remnant of a medieval city that functioned as the capital of the former Kingdom of Kakheti in the 16th-17th centuries. Currently, the architectural monument of the Royal Citadel of Gremi consists of the Church of the Archangels, a three-story residential castle of King Levan I, a bell tower, a wine cellar, an evacuation tunnel and is surrounded by a medieval wall with turrets and towers.

Next visit the village Tsinandali and visit House Museum of Alexander Chavchavadze. Prince Chavchavadze was Georgian nobleman, military figure of Russian Imperial army, poet and a public figure of 19th century. Nowadays, Chavchavadze's residence, mixed English-French style garden, enoteca and wine cellar operates as a museum. Tour includes a glass of Tsinandali white wine.

At the end of the day, drive to Telavi town for overnight.

DAY 5: TELAVI - MTSKHETA - ANANURI - GUDAURI

Total driving: 225 km (4h)

After breakfast leave Telavi and depart for Mtskheta.

Located at the confluence of the Aragvi and Mtkvari rivers, the city of Mtskheta was once the capital of Iberia (3rd century BC - 4th century AD), the ancient kingdom of Eastern Georgia. Mtskheta and its medieval architectural monuments: Jvari Monastery and Svetitskhoveli Cathedral are recognized by UNESCO as World Heritage Sites. Enjoy the scenery, panoramic views and take time to walk around.

Continue the trip to the north, towards the ski resort Gudauri. Drive on Georgian Military Road to the Great Caucasus mountains. On the way we make a stop near Zhinvali Reservoir and visit Ananuri Architectural Complex (16th-17th c.c.); The fort integrates medieval fortification with churches and Aragvi Eristavi s' (local feudal) residence.

In the evening continue to the north and get to Gudauri (2196 m).

Two overnights and dinners are arranged in Gudauri hotel.

DAY 6: GUDAURI - KAZBEGI - GERGETI - DARIALI - GUDAURI

Total driving: 98 km (2h 20 min)

Start full-day exploration of Caucasus mountains, Kazbegi municipality. Drive to Stephantsminda town – the administrative center of Khevi area. The road goes through Jvari Pass (2395 m) - impressive stops are available on the way: Friendship monument of observation platform, the watershed on a pass, travertine mount and try to taste bobbling mineral water from the alpine spring.

Arrival in Kazbegi and take a walk (approx. 2 hours, grade easy) to Mount Gergeti. Gergeti Trinity Church (14th century) is situated on the top of mountain. From there we can enjoy panoramic views of Kazbegi town and Kazbegi Glacier (5047 m).

Return to the town, and head to Dariali Gorge. One-hour hike to Gveleti waterfalls.

In the evening drive back to Gudauri.

DAY 7: GUDAURI - GORI - UPLISTSIKHE - KUTAISI

Total driving 324 km (5h 12 min)

After breakfast check out and leave Gudauri. Drive to Gori - administrative town of Shida (Inner) Kartli region. Visit House Museum of Joseph Stalin, the Soviet dictator-leader of the 20th. The guided tour will take about 30 minutes.

Uplistsikhe Cave Complex is about 12 km away from Gori. Comprised of cave dwellings, chambers, tunnels, and streets, Uplistsikhe is an ancient rock-hewn town dated as early as 1st millennium BC and served as an important political, trade and religious center of the pre-Christian times.

After Uplistsikhe, we continue our way to the west of Georgia through the Lesser Caucasus Tunnel and arrive in the city of Kutaisi, the administrative center of Imereti.

In the evening arrive in Kutaisi and take historical-cultural tour of Gelati Academy and Bagrati Cathedral. Both of these monuments were built during the Georgian Golden Age and nowadays Gelati Academy is included in the UNESCO World Heritage Sites list.

Overnight in Kutaisi.
