Next stop is Metekhi plateau - this rocky cliff wall overlooks the Mtkvari River bed, mediaeval part of the city and Mt. Mtskhinda Mount. Nice setting, once, here was the first residence of the Bagrationi family (5th -7th cc). In front of 13th c Metekhi St. Virgin Church we see the equestrian statue of King Vakhtang Gorgasali - the king, who moved capital city from Mtskheta to Tbilisi in the second half of fifth century.

After enjoying the setting, continue to Europe square and Rike Park. Aerial cable car lifts up us to the 4th c fortress on the opposite side of the river. Narikala fort served as the main hold force in Kala district, the second residence of Royal Family (12th c-13th cc)

Now here we are! The taste of multicultural amalgam, smells of sulfur, coffee and bread, mix of ornamented wooden residential architectural styles and countless churches, sounds of different worships, colorful carpets, artworks, galleries and outdoor cafés. Take time, wander around and continue to Maidan square, Shardeni and the King Erekle II Streets. On the way don't skip short visit to Si Oni Cathedral, the former seat of the patriarch and continue to the modern glass pedestrian Bridge of Peace.
