Drive to Mtskheta – the ancient capital of East Georgia. Visit Jvari monastery of 6th c - monument included in UNESCO world heritage list.

Visit Svetitskhoveli Cathedral - Mtskheta UNESCO site

Drive to Mtskheta – the ancient capital of East Georgia. Visit Svetitskhoveli Cathedral of 11th c - one of the most sacred places in whole Georgia, with the Christ's robe preserved in the Cathedral. Monument is included in UNESCO world heritage list.

Tbilisi City Walking Tour

Walk through the city and visit:

Metekhi church 13th c presents one of the most important architectural monuments of old Tbilisi.

Narikala Fortress 4th c dominates the Old Town as a most impressive architectural landmark. With its inaccessible slopes, the fortress served as a main fortification and defended the city for centuries.

Legvtakhevi("Fig Ravine") and a little bridge across the river.

Old Sulfur Bathhouses with healing natural warm water have been praised by numerous travelers who visited the city.

Meidan square & Shardeni street neighborhood - famous for cozy cafes, bars, restaurants, souvenirs' shops, picture galleries.

The Bridge of Peace is the modern architectural glassy bridge in Old Town.

Option 2: Tbilisi - Ananuri - Gudauri - Tbilisi

09:00

Meet your guide at Republic Square next to Bicycle monument

Explore Ananuri fortress & enjoy views of Zhinvali reservoir

Drive to Ananuri fortress 14-17th cc. The complex consists of fortifications and residential buildings of Aragvi Dukes. The purpose of the monument was to control the trade route and to guard the country from North.

Visit Gudauri Ski Resort

While visiting Gudauri Ski Resort, you can have a great time with various activities. You can ride the cable car high up the mountains to see amazing views. Using skimobiles, you can slide and play in the snow. There are also other fun things to do at the resort. It's a wonderful place for a winter adventure.

Option 3: Tbilisi - Bodbe - Signaghi - Tbilisi

09:00

Meet your guide at Republic Square next to Bicycle monument

Sample wine at KTW wine shop

“Kakhetian Traditional Winemaking” is one of the largest wine and spirits producing companies in Georgia and the Caucasus region. You can sample local wines and buy some to take home as well.

Badiauri - village of Georgian Cheese and Bread

On the way, make a stop in village Badiauri famous for its Guda cheese (not to be confused with the Dutch Gouda), a hard mountain cheese made with sheep's or cow's milk and numerous Georgian bread bakeries along the road.

Visit Bodbe Monastery

Visit Bodbe – monastic complex located near the Signaghi town. Bodbe monastery was built in 9th c. and was significantly renovated in 17th c. The monastery now functions as one of the major pilgrimage sites in Georgia. The female evangelist St. Nino's relics rest in Bodbe.

Explore Signaghi & city fortifications

Visit Signaghi - ancient town also called “City of Love”, encircled by beautiful 18th c. defensive wall. Due to its special and unique architecture and natural location Signaghi is one of the most beautiful small towns in Georgia. Built 790 meters above the sea level, it overlooks the picturesque landscape of Alazani Valley and Caucasus Mountains.

Although for Signagi itself half day of sightseeing will be more than enough, this town can be a good base for exploring the region on daily trips.
