Itinerary

TBILISI WALKING TOUR

The city tour starts at Avlabari metro station.

Guide will greet you at 16:00 and you walk to Metekhi plateau, from where the splendid panoramic view opens to the old city – Narikala fortress, Bath district, Meidani – so you can have a look at the whole old town.

After, we will continue walking to Rike park towards the Cable way. It connects Rike park with Narikala fortress.

Few minutes' ride up by cable way and enjoy breathtaking views of Old Tbilisi. From the top station of cable way are views to the old city and botanical garden. Fortress basement belongs to 4th c., which could be observed near bath district. Fortress is built on the hill, so from there is perfect view to the old city. You will be able to see the Huge Lady monument holding a sword in her right hand and wine bow in her left-hand - this is Mother of Georgia - "Kartlis Deda". She greets guests with wine and open hospitality and protecting children with this heavy sword. Stroll down along Botanical street, stop for pictures at early 19th c Mosque and enjoy beauty of natural waterfall hidden in the Legvtakhevi canyon . On the way to Bath District - Abanotubani, we will pass small bridge and reach Meidani square – the heart of old city. Central square which used to be trade center of the city and now is surrounded by nice cafes.

Here we have excursion in Caravansaray museum (Karvasla) to have a look of the history of Tbilisi and then continue walking to Shardeni street. Small art cafes and galleries across the street leads to Sioni cathedral, 19th c Synagogue, pedestrian glass Bridge of Peace, St. George's Karis church, King Erekle II street, Anchiskhati basilica, Gabriadze puppet show tower, Pushkini street, Freedom square and part of Rustaveli avenue.

We finish the tour at Galleria Tbilisi shopping mall near the Liberty (Freedom) square metro station.

Thank you and see you soon again!
