Itinerary

Adjara Wine Tour

CHIKUNETI- SHERVASHIDZE WEINGUT-CHÂTEAU IVERI

Driving distance 137 km (3 h 38 min)

One hour drive to the village Chikuneti located in Machakhela canyon at the Machakhela National Park (36 km from Batumi). Ilia's Family preserved Winery founded in X-XII c.c . Enjoy the atmosphere of Adjarian traditional village, magnificent views from the vineyards, taste wine and head back to Adjaristskali valley.

Drive to Shervashidze Marani. The village is named by First of May (260m altitude), Keda Municipality. Vineyards are cultivated in 1.5 hectares around the winery. Family produces: Chkhaveri, Tsolikouri, Ojaleshi, Black Pinot and other wines. Lunch and wine tasting will be provided by hosts.

The next spot is Chateau Iveri at Varjanisi village, Keda municipality. The winery aims to revive indigenous viticulture in the region by cultivating local grape varieties and continuing wine making traditions. Excursion starts by visiting the vineyards and the introduction of local winemaking methods. Taste three glasses of Organic Wines- one white and two red (Tsolikauri, Chkhaveri, Satsuri).

Drive Back to Batumi.

Optional: Visit Winery Batumi Marani – works 10:00 - 22:00 every day

- masterclass of Georgian wine and cheese tasting is arranged here. At the end of the tour, get acquainted with the Georgian wine and cheese history, how to pair Georgian cuisine with its wine, and learn characteristics of bio-organic wine.
